
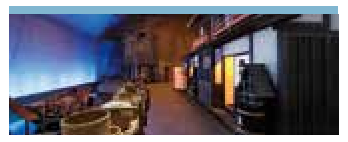
A Kiyosumi-Shirakawa

❶ Kiyosumi Garden MAP:F-1
This strolling-style landscape garden holds a key place in modern garden history. Featuring rare stones from across Japan, a large pond with islands, a rock crossing, and a pavilion, it was designated Tokyo's first place of scenic beauty for its remarkable scenery.
https://www.tokyo-park.or.jp/park/kiyosumi/

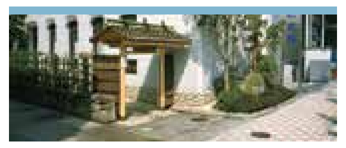
❷ Seated Copper Statue of Jizo Bosatsu MAP:F-1
This seated copper statue of Jizo Bosatsu is one of six such statues originally located in Edo. Reiganji Temple's statue, the fifth of the series, was cast in 1717. The statue has been classified as a Designated Tangible Cultural Property by the Tokyo municipal government.

❸ Museum of Contemporary Art Tokyo MAP:G-2
MOT exhibits works representing a broad range of genres, including a permanent collection that offers an overview of the development of contemporary art and various large, international exhibits.
https://www.mot-art-museum.jp/en/

❹ Fukagawa Edo Museum MAP:F-1
The Fukagawa Edo Museum recreates scenes from the Fukagawa district and the lives of its residents during the Edo period. The exhibits use sound and lighting effects to allow visitors to experience a day in the life of the district's residents in a realistic manner.
https://www.kcf.or.jp/fukagawa/



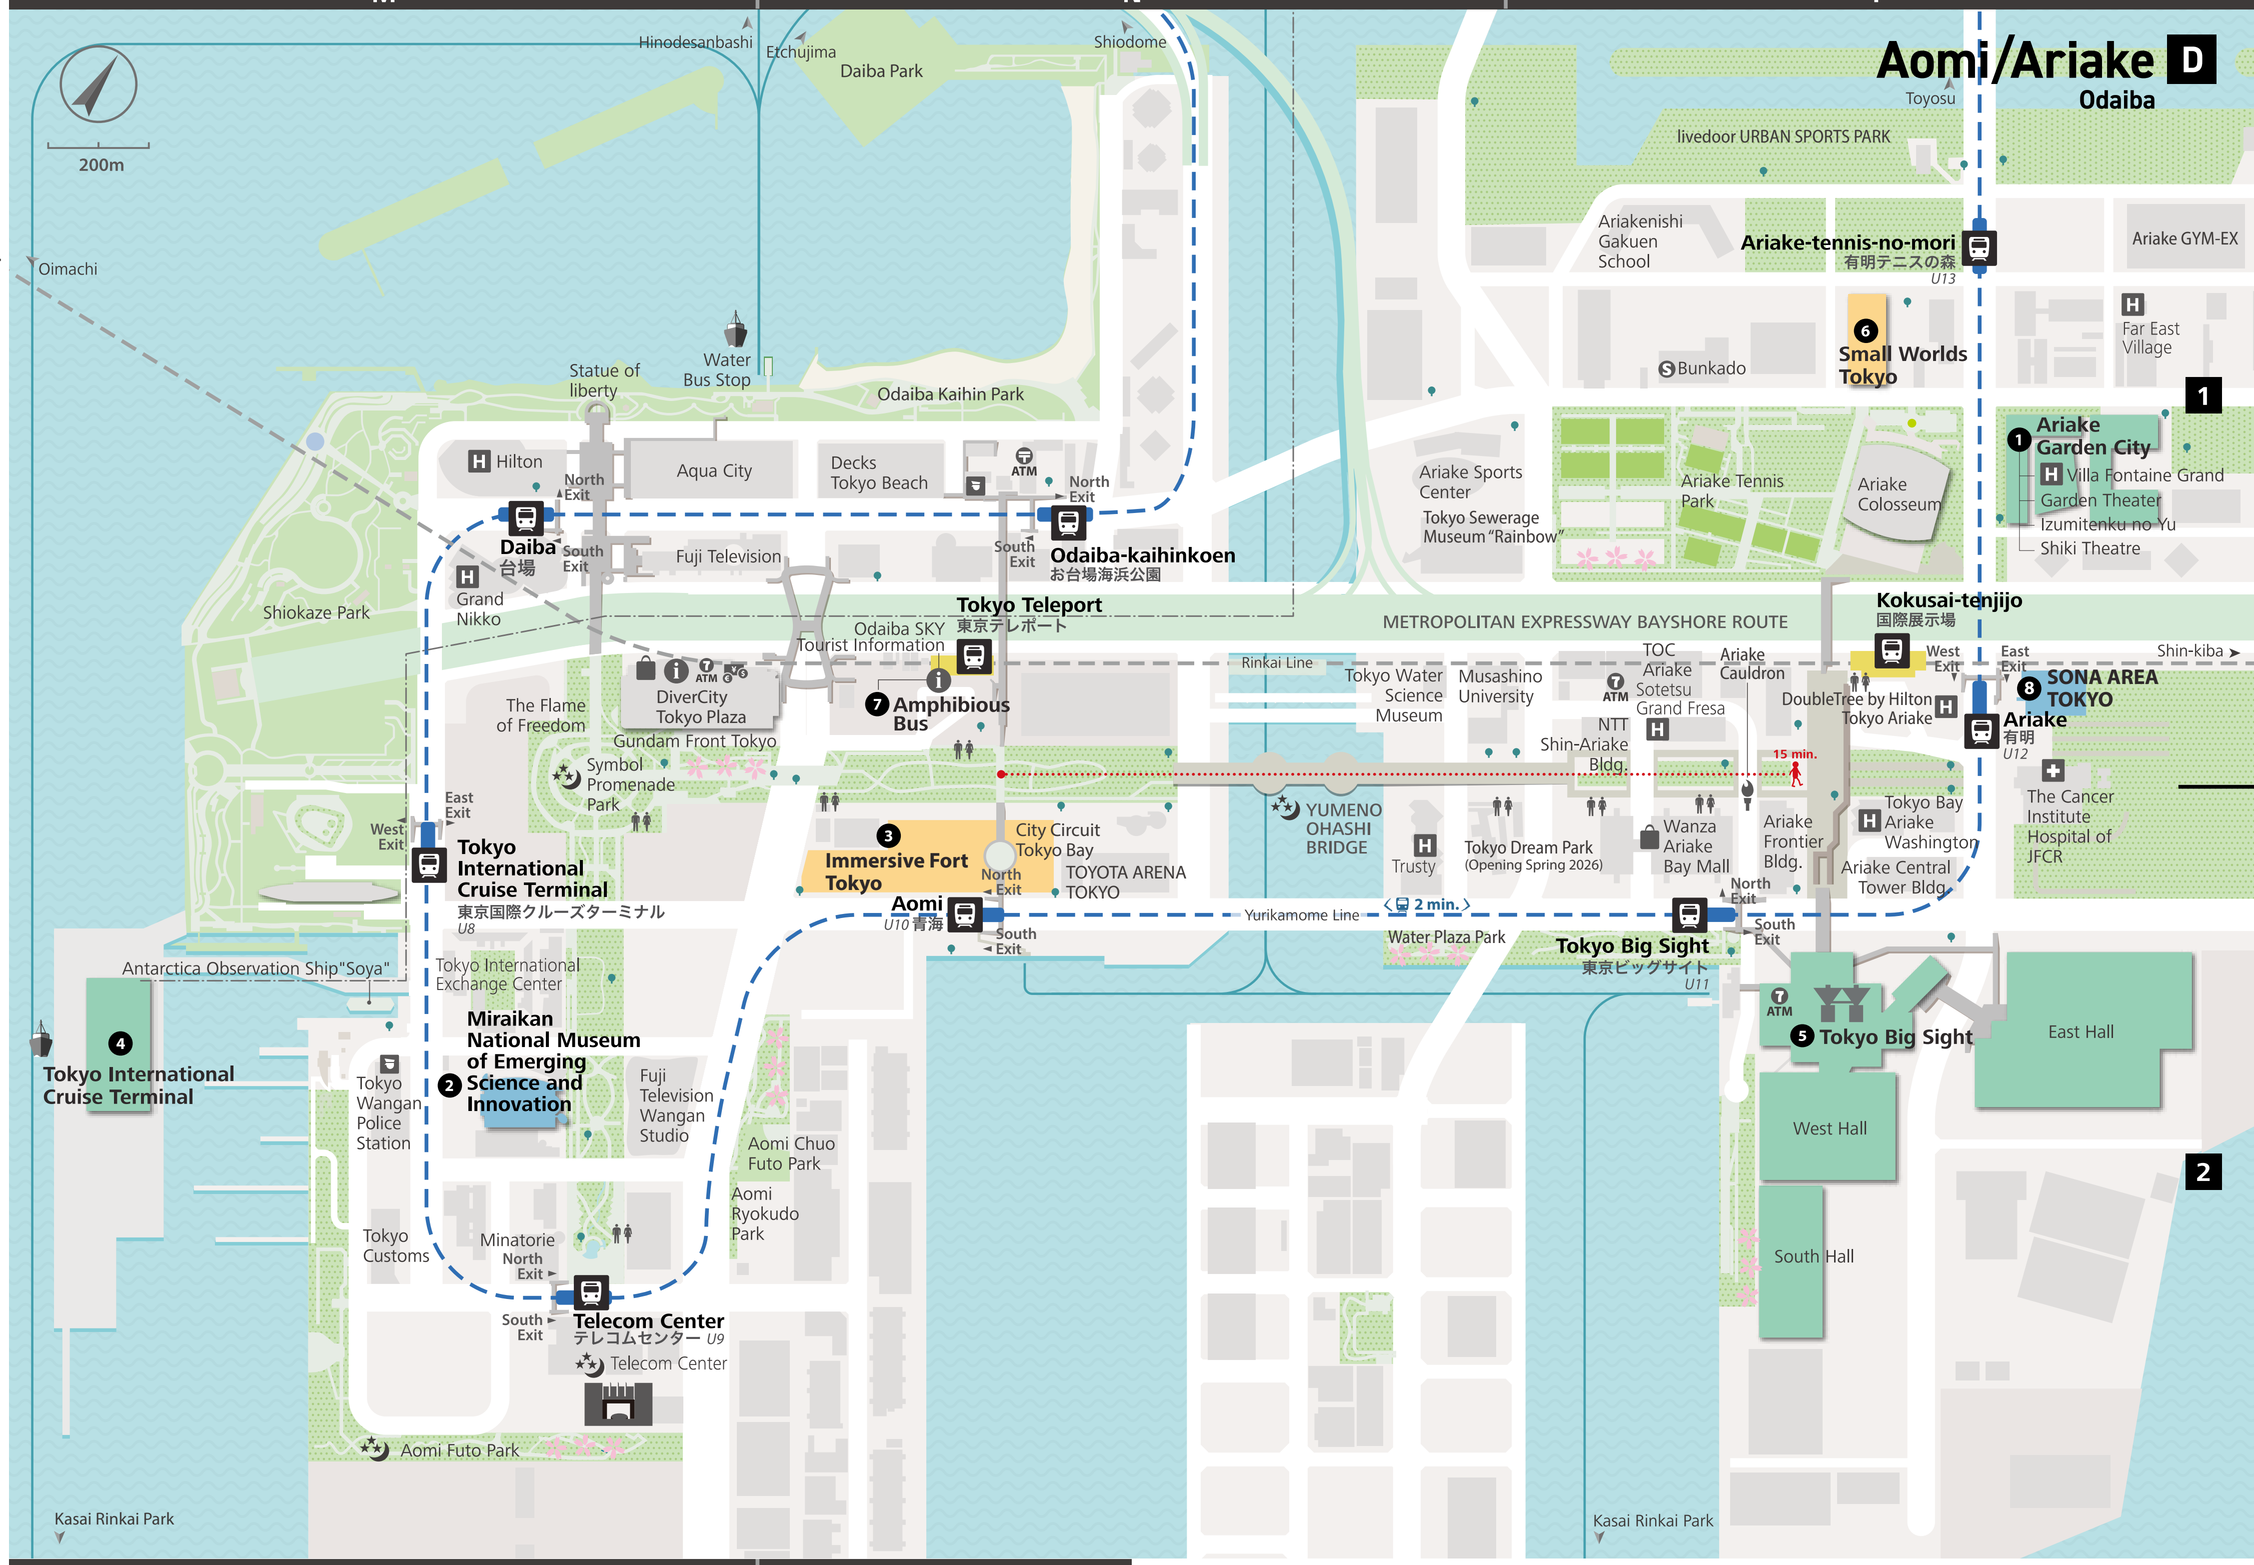
❺ Basho Museum MAP:F-1
The famous haiku poet Matsuo Basho lived in Fukagawa. Built on a site located close to his actual residence, the museum features exhibitions of historical materials related to Basho as well as representative examples of haiku authorship throughout the years. https://www.kcf.or.jp/basyo/



❻ Sumida River Terrace MAP:F-1
Built using the foundation of a revetment that reinforces an embankment along the Sumida River, this terrace beckons the public to experience the surrounding water. Many people come to enjoy running or walking while gazing at the seasonally changing landscape.

Fukagawa-meshi cuisine
This local cuisine originated during the Edo period as a dish eaten by fishermen aboard their vessels. The restaurant Fukagawajuku offers two varieties: bukkake, which consists of littleneck clams stewed in miso, and takikomi, a soy sauce-flavored variant.

A community of coffee
The Kiyosumi-Shirakawa area has been attracting attention recently for cafes with a pleasant ambience and high-quality coffee. Many of the cafes roast their own beans.

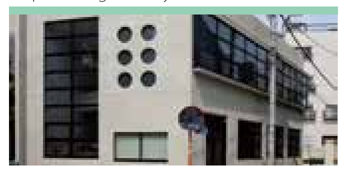


B Monzen-Nakacho

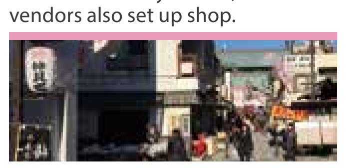
❶ Tomioka Hachimangu Shrine MAP:H
Known for the Fukagawa Hachiman Festival, one of Edo's three great festivals, this Shrine is home to Japan's largest gold mikoshi (portable shrine) as well as a yokozuna monument (a historic sumo site). An antique fair is held on the first, second, fourth and fifth Sundays of every month.
http://www.tomiokahachimangu.or.jp/

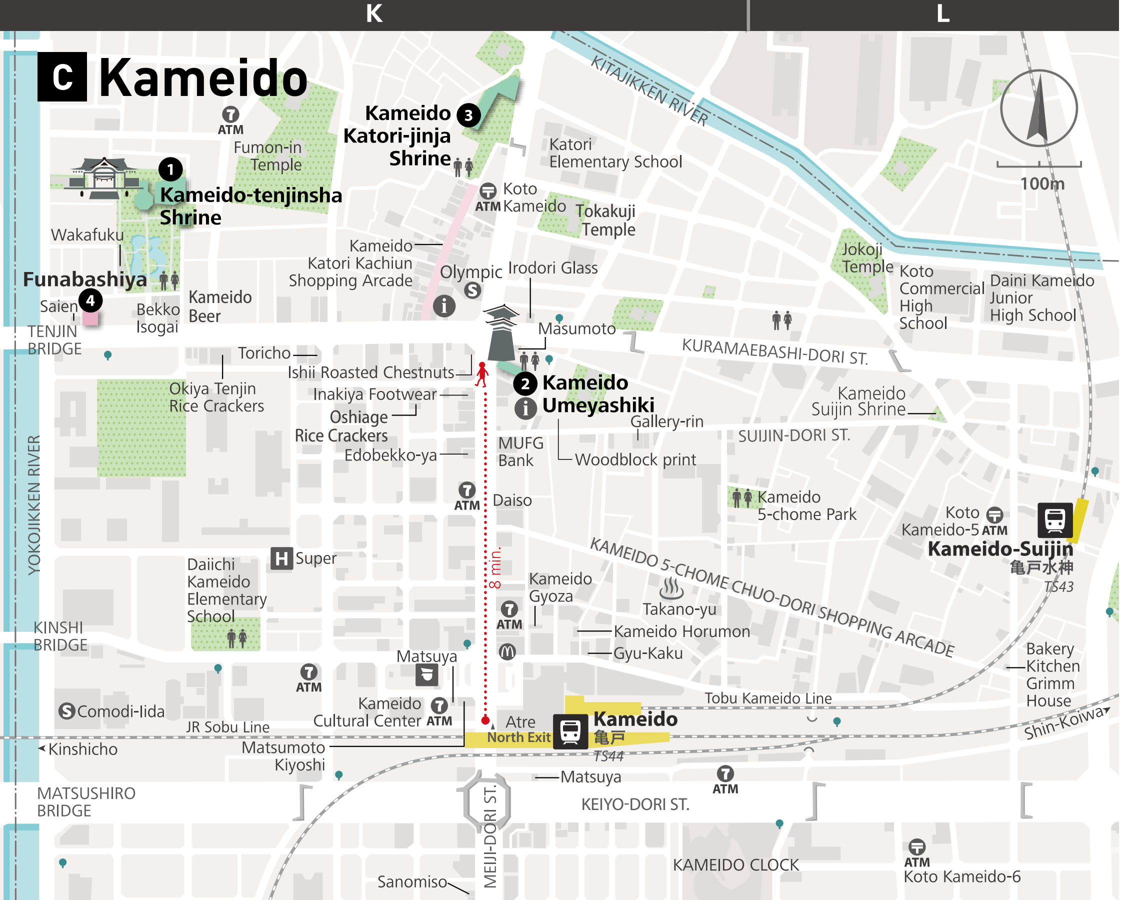
❷ Fukagawa Fudoudou MAP:H
Fukagawa Fudodo, which houses a statue of the god of fire, has distinctive exterior walls that were designed based on the characters for "Shingon", a Japanese school of Buddhism. Any offer, as long as it's from the heart, will do.
https://www.fukagawafudou.gr.jp/

❸ FUKAGAWA TOKYO MODAN KAN MAP:H
Fukagawa Tokyo Modern Kan offers information about sightseeing, history, and culture in Koto City. The structure was built as a city-operated cafeteria in 1932, and is currently a nationally registered Tangible Cultural Property.
https://fukagawatokyo.com/



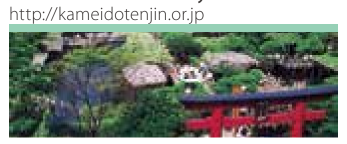
❹ Ninjo Fukagawa Goriyaku Dori St. MAP:H
This street, which is the pilgrimage route to Fukagawa Fudodo, is home to about 40 shops (some more than 100 years old) offering Japanese-style confections and Edo-inspired articles. It is especially lively on the 1st, 15th and 28th of every month, when stall vendors also set up shop.





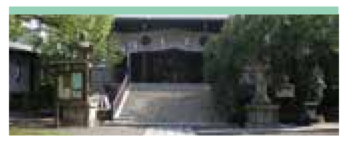
C Kameido

❶ Kameido Tenjinsha Shrine MAP:K
The beauty of its wisteria was depicted by renowned ukiyo-e artist Hiroshige Utagawa in his One Hundred Famous Views of Edo. The shrine remains famous today for its wisteria and Japanese apricot flowers. The shrine was chosen as one of the 100 Best Views of Modern Tokyo.
http://kameidotenjin.or.jp



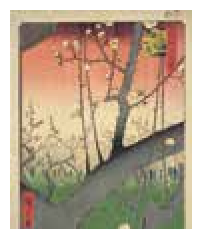
❷ Kameido Umeyashiki MAP:K
Kameido Umeyashiki (Plum Estate) provides tourist information for Koto City and the Kameido district. The facility also has a gift shop that sells locally produced items and an area where Edo cut glass, an art form traditionally practised in the area, is on display and available for purchase.
https://kameido-umeyashiki.com

❸ Kameido Katori-jinja Shrine MAP:K
Built in 665, Kameido Katori-jinja Shrine is Koto City's oldest Shinto shrine. Based on the fact that a general won a battle long ago after praying at this shrine, it is famous for being a place where prayers for success in martial arts and sports will be answered.
https://www.kameido-katori.com

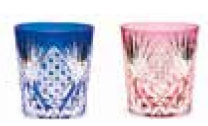


❹ Kuzumochi rice cakes from Funabashiya MAP:K
This famous shop, which was founded in 1805, makes kuzumochi rice cakes. Kuzumochi rice cakes are made with wheat flour starch that has fermented with lactic acid bacteria for 15 months. The cakes are steamed and then topped with soybean flour and dark molasses. https://www.funabashiya.co.jp/

Ukiyo-e
This genre of painting developed during the Edo period. It has gained worldwide acceptance since. In fact, van Gogh copied "Kameido Umeyashiki" from ukiyo-e artist Hiroshige Utagawa's One Hundred Famous Views of Edo.
Image provider: Property of National Diet Library



Edo Kiriko (Edo Cut Glass)
This traditional Japanese technique for working glass was invented in 1834. Beautiful glass articles and utensils featuring patterns such as lattices, flowers, and woven bamboo are used in many Japanese restaurants.
Image provider: Edokiriko Cooperative Association



A district known for its budget eateries
A district known for its budget eateries Don't be fooled by their casual appearance--many local restaurants are famous, including Kameido Horumon, Kameido Gyoza, and Jun Reba Don. Enjoy the kind of homestyle flavor you can only find in downtown Tokyo.

Station · Public Toilet · Hotel · Tourist Information · Community Cycle · Exit Water Bus Station · Japanese Boat Boarding Point · Police · Curency Exchange Night View Spot · Sento · Café · Shopping Center · Fukagawa-meshi Cuisine
ATM at 7-Eleven · ATM at Post Office · Super Market · McDonalds
Travelling Direction · Cherry Blossom Sights Facility · Museum · Shopping · Entertainment

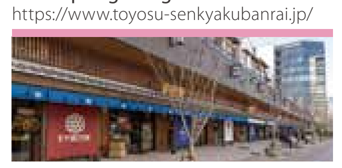
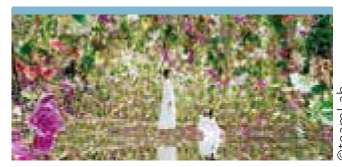
E Toyosu

❶ Gas Science Museum MAP:Q
Enjoy hands-on exhibits about topics like energy and the lifestyles and societies of the future while learning about underlying issues. The facility also offers programming like quiz contests and workshops.
Planned closure: September 23, 2026.
https://www.gas-kagakukan.com/

❷ Toyosu Senkyaku Banrai MAP:Q
This facility opened next to the Toyosu Shijo in February 2024. Designed to recreate an old-fashioned townscape from the Edo period, it consists of a food and shopping area and a bathing area that recreates a hot spring village.
https://www.toyosu-senkyakubanrai.jp/

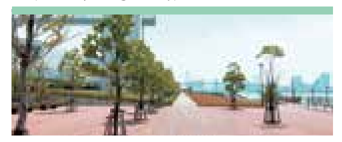


❸ teamLab Planets TOKYO DMM MAP:Q
Designed around the theme of "body immersive," this garden combines flowers with a museum that invites guests to get their feet wet… virtually. Enjoy an experience that merges technology and art.
https://www.teamlab.art/e/planets/



©teamLab

❹ Toyosu Gururi Park MAP:Q
This park extends from Shin-toyosu Station to Toyosu Market.
Its 4.5-kilometer path is ideal for walking and running. Have a barbecue during the day or enjoy a beautiful nightscape featuring Rainbow Bridge and nearby buildings at night.
https://toyosugururi.jp/



❺ Toyosu Market MAP:Q
This market moved from Tsukiji to Toyosu in October 2018. Walkways accommodate visitors on tours, and you can watch tuna auctions and visit restaurants and other businesses the market is open.
https://www.shijou.metro.tokyo.lg.jp/

D Aomi / Ariake Odaiba

❶ Ariake Garden MAP:P-1
One of the Tokyo Wangan area's largest commercial complexes. Around a shopping center with more than 200 shops you'll find event halls, a Shiki Theatre, hotels, a spa, and more.
https://www.shopping-sumitomo-rd.com/

❷ Miraikan - The National Museum of Emerging Science and Innovation MAP:M-2
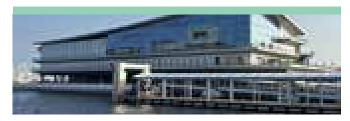
This national science museum introduces robots, space, information science, the global environment, and other topics. Have fun learning about advanced science and technology through hands-on exhibits and events.
https://www.miraikan.jst.go.jp

❸ Immersive Fort Tokyo MAP:N-2
The world's first indoor theme park, this facility brings together some of the world's leading immersive experiences.Feel like you've been placed right in a movie as a series of incidents happens right next to you one after another. Planned closure: February 28, 2026. https://immersivefort.com/

❹ Tokyo International Cruise Terminal MAP:M-2
This terminal opened in September 2020 as a new gateway to the sea. Both domestic passenger ships and large, foreign-flagged cruise ships come and go at the terminal, which is distinguished by a large roof that evokes waves and a ship's sails.
https://www.tptc.co.jp/terminal/guide/cruise



❺ Tokyo Big Sight MAP:P-2
With total exhibit space of 115,420 square meters, Tokyo Big Sight is one of Japan's largest exhibition halls. The complex, which hosts a variety of exhibitions and other events throughout the year, bustles with visitors whenever an event is being held. https://www.bigsight.jp/

❻ Small Worlds Tokyo MAP:P-1
A miniature indoor theme park with a total area of about 8,000 square meters. Enjoy moving miniature attractions featuring state-of-the art technologies.
https://www.smallworlds.jp/

❼ Amphibious bus MAP:N-1
Duck is an amphibious bus that connects Odaiba and Toyosu.
The highlight of this tour capturing the appeal of the coast area comes when the bus splashes into the canal. Enjoy viewing newly-developing areas from the water.
https://www.skybus.jp/
❽ SONA AREA TOKYO The Disaster Prevention Experence-Learning Facility MAP:P-1
Learn how to survive the immediate aftermath of an earthquake, when little support or relief will be available. Other attractions include a life-size diorama that recreates a disaster-stricken area and shelter and exhibits introducing disaster preparedness supplies.
https://www.tokyorinkai-koen.jp/